Congregation Sha'arai Shomayim of Mobile, in honor of its founding and its status as the oldest synagogue in the state of Alabama, cordially invites the congregation of Temple Beth El, Pensacola, Florida, to attend its annual Anniversary Service. Please join us on Saturday, January 13, at 11:00 am, for the celebration of Shabbat. The service will be jointly officiated by Rabbi Dana Kaplan and Rabbi Joel Fleekop. Following lunch, which will be provided in the social hall, our visiting Scholar-in-Residence, Rabbi David Frankel, will describe for us "What Really Happened in the Garden of Eden." Professor Frankel is a professor of Bible at the Schechter Institutes of Jewish Studies (Masorti) in Jerusalem, Israel. For those willing to continue his/her afternoon in the Yellowhammer State, the Christian-Jewish Dialogue of Mobile will convene in the Temple at 3:00 pm. Professor Frankel's address to this group will be: "Does the Hebrew Bible Foretell the Story of Jesus? Christian-Jewish Polemics in the Middle Ages." This topic should provoke stimulating questions and commentary. We look forward to greeting many Floridians on January 13, 2018, who will help make this a memorable Shabbaton.

Latke Making Party

Sunday, December 10, 8:00 am -11am Ray Engel and the Brotherhood invite you to join them in the Temple kitchen for a morning full of latke making fun. We will be preparing several hundred latkes for use at our Temple Hanukkah celebrations.

If you can help (even for just a few hours) please contact Ray Engel at 850-516-3495 or raymondengel@cox.net. Please also let Ray know if you can bring a food processor.

Shabbat Hanukkah Celebration Friday, December 15, 6:00 pm Grab your hanukkiah and join us in the sanctuary for a music-filled Hanukkah Shabbat service. Worship will be led by Rabbi Joel, Sonia Yanovsky, Victoria Adamenko and will feature participation by students from the School for Jewish Living

Following worship, the fun continues in the Max L. Bear auditorium with dreidel, music, and a Hanukkah themed potluck featuring latkes and sufganiyot. The Men's club will be cooking up delicious latkes and a chicken entrée will be provided by the Sisterhood. Please bring a salad, side, or dessert to share.

ManTalk Recap and Upcoming Event

items in the box and we will deliver to the school.

Brentwood Elementary Backpack Buddies

Many students at nearby Brentwood Elementary rely on school breakfast and lunch for the bulk of their nutrition. Temple Beth El is working to ensure they have enough to eat during weekends by collecting easily prepared food items that can be sent home on Fridays with the school's most needy students. Examples include:

These children need our help! This will be an ongoing project. Temple Beth El will have a box labeled "Backpack Buddies for Brentwood Elementary". Just put the fruit cups, ramen noodles, peanut butter/crackers, granola bars, macaroni and cheese, Vienna sausage, Spaghetti O's, or any individual sized canned food.

If you missed the November ManTalk, you missed out on learning ways to improve yourself mentally and physically. Dr. Bill Zimmern made us all aware of our responsibilities to ourselves and how simple it is to get and maintain control.

Don't miss the December 5th gathering at Temple Beth El at 7 PM. The pain you have in your hip, knee, ankles and back may emanate from a completely different place. Dr. Colby Maher is a well-known neurosurgeon, member of Baptist Hospital and serves on the executive board of Andrews Institute and will answer any questions during his informal discussion. I guarantee you will learn from the experience!

December's talk is one to boggle your mind and just about every other nerve in your body. Anyone who misses this meeting, needs their head examined. See you there if you are a man over the age of 21 (& please feel free to bring friends).

From Avishay.....

Dear Community,

I'll start by saying thank you all again for coming to my second "Café Israel" and for being so supportive. It's means so much to me! Hope to see you again next Café Israel Dec, 11th.

Adult Hebrew classes season is already started, learning the fun way! Now on the website too! Missed a class? Want to see what are we doing? All the classes are now online! Don't forget to call me for homework! Check it out today! It's never too late to join

Our Chai Discussion Group, facilitated by Marge Wein, continues to bring provocative issues to the table. Our topic in November was the Gap between Millennials and Israel. It was well attended. These lively discussions are held the 4th Tuesday of every month.

Last month I visited Creative Learning Academy. I had an amazing two hours on the Western Wall and Hanukkah with great kids. Thank you Melissa Sontag for the opportunity, looking forward for the next time! Special thanks to Chuck Lisner who keeps me involved with Kiwanis.

Please let me know if you would like me to visit or speak at your schools, civic organizations, or any churches. I really want to be there, to be involved and get to know the Pensacola community.

Last week I went to The International Festival in Mobile. Thousands of people visited with me and not a single one knew any but the basic facts. One of the kids actually asked me if Israel really exist. Glad that I had the opportunity to expand their knowledge about Israel, and it's just the beginning.

Please join us for our next event! Pensacola Jewish Federation invites you and your children to our PJ Library and PJ Our Way Havdalah. This is a great opportunity to meet new friends, and for your children to experience our Havdalah Celebration! We will have kosher hot dogs and s'mores. There will be art projects for the children. Please feel free to bring a side dish to share. More details on the website!

Hanukkah is coming up, please follow our website for more information!

If you are in high school, and you are searching for a meaningful volunteer place for your scholarship, get in touch with me. Federation offers volunteer hours! Important but fun guaranteed!

I have been working daily on our Facebook page and our website. Please check us out at pensacolajewishfederation.com. and Pensacola Jewish Federation on Facebook. Besides Cafe Israel, Chai, and Hebrew lessons, I have some other events planned for this month. They include:

Israeli cooking

Door To Dor (generation) As a way for me to get to know you better and show you my cooking skills (: I'm inviting you for a unique cooking experience at your home, with a short presentation on a topic you choose. It will be tasty and interesting!

Taste of Memories cooking with a twist. Taste and you won't forget, for a bigger impact I'm just going to promise an unforgettable cooking session.

Blood drive

For the past six years I've been donating blood every three months in Israel, and I don't plan on stopping here. Honestly believing that "Saving one life is like saving the world"

Israeli music

Got a talent? love playing any kind of instrument? Please reach out to me. I've been working on special project and I can't do it alone. Call me for more details!

Donations

Temple Beth El General Fund: In memory of Greta Rickoff from Patricia Freysinger

A donation has been made by David and Lillian Lavine

Matching Grant Fund: A donation has been made by Ed Walborsky

Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: A donation was made by Chuck and Marty Lisner

Better Ways to Make Charitable Donations

Did you know that certain IRA distributions can be donated to the Temple taxfree?

If you are age 70½ or older, you can make qualified charitable distributions (QCD) from an IRA, up to $100,000 per year ($200,000 for married couples who qualify), without having to pay federal income taxes on the distributions. These distributions are not tax deductible and must be made payable to a qualified charity, such as Temple Beth El, directly from your IRA custodian. You can use the qualified charitable distribution to meet all or part of your required minimum distribution (RMD) for the year. One important caveat of using a QCD to satisfy an RMD obligation is that an RMD is presumed to be satisfied in the order of your distributions out of the IRA for the year. If you are over 591/2 but under 701/2, you can take a regular taxable distribution from your IRA and then make a tax-deductible charitable donation.

Did you know that you can avoid paying taxes on capital gains when you donate appreciated securities?

Regardless of your age, it can be beneficial to donate appreciated securities directly to a qualified charity. The fair value of the securities is a tax-deductible charitable donation. In this way, you avoid having to pay taxes on the capital gains.

Charities must deposit the payments before December 31st to be considered for the applicable year. Your financial and tax advisors can help you evaluate these strategies to determine whether it makes sense in your overall estate plan. Please consider taking advantage of these provisions to help sustain our Temple!

It is with a heavy heart that we share news of the passing of Temple member Joe Khatena. The congregation extends its condolences to Joe's children, Moshe (Renee), AI (Christine), Annette, Serena, and the entire family.

Funeral services were held at the Temple Beth El Cemetery on Friday, November 3. Zichrono L'vrachah — May Joe's memory always be a source of comfort and blessing.

With sadness we announce that former Temple and Sisterhood member, Delores Gelfand, passed away in Columbus, Ohio where she was living. Delores was Greta Rickoff's sister and Scott Rickoff's aunt. The congregation sends deep condolences to the entire Gelfand and Rickoff families during this difficult time. May her memory be for a blessing.
