Shavuot & Confirmation Service

Tuesday, May 30, 7pm

The entire congregation is invited to join in the celebration as together we mark Confirmation and Shavuot in a music-filled worship experience. Led by the confirmands and their classmates, with song-leading by Nick May, the service will include the reading of the Ten Commandments and the Book of Ruth.

Mazel Tov to this year's Confirmands: Isabella Olensky, Lauren Rosenblatt, and Spencer Segal.
Please join us in celebrating their accomplishments.

A special Shavuot themed oneg will be held in the Max L. Bear auditorium following worship.

Comedy Night is Here!

Please see included flyer about this event honoring Renee and Steve Eilen on Saturday evening, May 20th. Plan to attend this evening of comedy to support our children going to summer Jewish camp. Children who attend camp are more likely to remain involved Jews throughout their lives. Support our children and the future of Reform Judaism. If you're able to attend or not, please consider making a donation. Questions? Contact Janet Kahn at jskahn1@gmail.com or (850) 566-2873.

The Weather is Beautiful Shabbat Under the Stars to be held in May

Please join us for a Shabbat Under the Stars at the home of Fred and Brenda Vigodsky, 508 Kenilworth Road, Gulf Breeze, on Friday, May 5, 2017 at 6:00 p.m. Bring your family and friends, a covered dish to share, chairs and a table if you're able.

Torah Study - Exploring Pirkei Avot May 6 and May 20

Between Passover and Shavuot (the days of the omer) it is customary to study the rabbinic text of Pirkei Avot — Sayings of our Ancestors. Join with Rabbi Fleekop and Temple friends in exploring this nearly 2,000 year old collection of teachings and aphorisms. Learners of all levels of experience are welcome. Bagels, schmear, and coffee will be served.

Jacobs Camp is the Reform Jewish Movement's summer camp serving the Deep South: Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Central & Western Tennessee and the Florida Panhandle. Since 1970, Jacobs has provided a caring Jewish community that has become a second home to many. Children from URJ congregations across the Deep South join together each summer to experience the fun and magic of Jewish camping.

Our caring and committed staff members (many of whom were campers themselves) strive to enrich the campers' experiences by helping them build lasting friendships. These relationships lay the foundation for our summer community, providing encouragement and support. Our intimate camp environment allows campers to embrace the challenge of learning new skills in athletics, aquatics, the arts, and adventure and nature programs. What's more, campers also immerse themselves in a wide range of innovative Jewish educational pursuits and creative spiritual experiences.

From the youngest of our campers to the oldest of our Geshet (Counselors-in-Training), every child who spends a summer at Jacobs Camp returns home a little wiser, a little more self-confident, and a little more connected to the Jewish community. A summer at Jacobs Camp is more than a summer of fun. A summer at Jacobs is meant to last a lifetime.

Mission of Henry S. Jacobs Camp

The mission of the URJ Henry S. Jacobs Camp is to provide a high-quality Reform Jewish camping experience to the children of Southern communities that enriches and enhances their lives spiritually, intellectually, and physically in a safe and friendly family environment. Jacobs Camp fulfill its mission through a commitment to:

- Teaching Jewish values and instilling pride in our shared Jewish heritage.
- Providing an around-the-clock experience in Jewish living.
- Encouraging life-long friendship and relationships.
- Promoting healthy development of personal character.
- Enhancing Jewish living skills in an environment of high quality program, staff & facilities.
- Providing numerous positive adult Jewish role models.
- Deepening connections to Israel and the Hebrew language.
- Receiving active support and participation from all of our stakeholders.
- Reaching the broadest number of children possible.
- Serving families with roots in the South and connections to Jacobs Camp.
- Creating, every summer, "A Jewish Place at a Southern Pace."

Sisterhood News

Whew! Another month has gone by. The last meeting of this Sisterhood year will be at 11:30 am on Wednesday, May 17th. As we enter the summer months, it seems to be appropriate to bring Jessica Blessing, Registered Dietitian and Health Coach, to discuss Women's Health and Stress Reduction.

Seder was a success with 123 attending. Great thanks go to Elaine Storms, Ellen Deaver, Janet Kahn and Pam Ravenscroft for all of their help. You are all the greatest! A special thank you to Rabbi Joel for a wonderful Seder and to Sonia and Andrea for beautiful singing.

Women's Seder saw almost 40 women come together to celebrate a special Seder. A tremendous thank you to Sydney McAbee, Andrea Fleekop, Nichole Friedland and Pat Braunstien for bringing this event to fruition. Music by Sonia and Victoria was the perfect touch. It is always special to celebrate with our "sisters"! Watch next year for our 2nd Annual Women's Seder!

We will have a special treat when we start our next Sisterhood year on Wednesday, August 16th. Ellen Petracco, WRJ Southeast District President and Cheryl Raskin-Hood, WRJ Southeast District 1st VP, will be our honored guests and speakers. This is a not-to-be-missed meeting. Have a wonderful summer. Watch your emails as we will once again be supplying food for the Temple Poker Fundraiser on August 26th.

Sisterhood doesn't go away or take an hiatus over the summer months. It is a 365/24 hour entity. If you need anything, call! Remember, without YOU we are one woman short.

Alice

We Can't Say Enough.....

The Women's Passover Seder on April 15 was a lovely event starting with the postcard invitation designed by Andrea Fleekop. The Haggadah was researched, organized and put together by Andrea as well. Sydney McAbee planned and prepared the delicious meal. Sonia Yanovskiy led the singing. Victoria Adamenko played the piano that Janet Kahn made certain was cleaned and tuned prior to the event. Pat Braunstien decorated the tables with flowers. Hynda Rome and Alice Klein helped with table set-ups and seder plates. Nichole Friedland had us all out searching for the afikoman so we could get the wonderful gift card prize. If not next year in Jerusalem, then next year we hope to see you at the Women's Seder.

Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to put together such a delightful seder for the women of our community.

From Yael....

"If we wish to live and to bequeath life to our offspring, if we believe that we are to pave the way to the future, then we must first of all not forget." Last month we commemorated 6 million Jews who were cruelly murdered by the Nazis and their helpers. 6 million lives that were taken away just because they represented the other, the different, the "unknown".

How do you even begin to grasp this number? How do you pay tribute to each and every person whose life was taken away just because they were Jewish? In Israel, on the evening of Yom Ha'shoah, a national ceremony takes place at Yad Va'Shem. Each year, 6 Holocaust survivors are chosen to light a torch, each representing a million victims of this terrible plan, thought and executed by mankind.

Elka Abramovitz
 Moshe Haelion
 Moshe Jakobowitz
 Moshe Porat
 Jeannine Sebbane- Bouhanna
 Max Privler

These 6 extraordinary, brave, humble and "regular" human beings survived the horrors and lived to light the torches in Israel, the homeland for Jews all around the world. I encourage you to read their stories and watch their videos:

<http://www.yadvashem.org/.../remembran.../2017/torchlighters.asp>

And as for me, I'm so thankful to have had the opportunity to talk with our own Eta Hecht and Molly Gross. I promise to remember, study, question, cry, advocate but mainly- not to forget. EVER.

Yom Hashoah also reminds us how lucky we are to have Israel as our homeland. This year we're marking 69 years of the state of Israel. We really ought to celebrate this occasion! And what better way to celebrate than with food!

As a matter a fact one of the most common questions I get here in the US is "what do you all eat in Israel?" This event provided a chance to learn and taste Israeli traditional food.

Did you know that besides the traditional meals such as shashukah, falafel and Israeli salads, Israel's culinary world is very vibrant and broad. There are over 100 sushi restaurants in Tel Aviv, making it the city with the most sushi restaurants per capita after Tokyo and NYC. There are more than 40 (!) kosher McDonald's in Israel and some even sell a special Israeli meal- McFalafel. The Israeli diet is considered to be one of the healthiest ones in the world. Research shows that Israelis consume the third most amount of vegetables and sweets in the world.

Love,

Yael

Missing Confirmation Pictures

Confirmation pictures have been hung, but the Temple is missing pictures from previous years. If you or someone you love was confirmed at Temple Beth El, please make certain the picture from that year is included in the Temple collection. If it's not included and you happen to have a picture at home, the Collections and Exhibitions Committee will be happy to make a copy of it for the Temple. Please attempt to identify the students in the picture so that the names may be listed on the picture plaque.

The Collections and Exhibitions Committee continues their good work. Several pieces of artwork have been hung in the Max L. Bear Auditorium, the veterans plaque is hung in the hallway outside the sanctuary and the old Temple cornerstones are now beautifully mounted in the lower lobby.

Thank you,
Allen Miller

Many thanks to Allen Miller who spent several hours helping to organize the books in the "old" library. These books may be borrowed on the honor system.

We're sorry that we are not able to accept donated books at this time due to limited space.

"Steven Spielberg- A life in films" by Molly Haskell

"Everything about me is in my films," Steven Spielberg has said. Taking this as a key to understanding the hugely successful moviemaker, Molly Haskell explores the full range of Spielberg's works for the light they shine upon the man himself. Through such powerhouse hits as Close Encounters of the Third Kind, E.T., Jurassic Park, and Indiana Jones, to lesser-known masterworks like A.I. and Empire of the Sun, to the haunting Schindler's List, Haskell shows how Spielberg's uniquely evocative filmmaking and story-telling reveal the many ways in which his life, work, and times are entwined.

Organizing chapters around specific films, the distinguished critic discusses how Spielberg's childhood in non-Jewish suburbs, his parents' traumatic divorce, his return to Judaism upon his son's birth, and other events echo in his work. She offers a brilliant portrait of the extraordinary director—a fearful boy living through his imagination who grew into a man whose openness, generosity of spirit, and creativity have enchanted audiences for more than 40 years.

Please welcome new members, Lawrence and Marcia Schuffman and daughter, Micaela Schuffman

We also welcome Cameron and Claire Radon and their three young children, Lena, Jackson and Fiona.
