Sisterhood News

Ladies,

Here we are at the most beautiful time of year: the High Holidays. May it be a time of reflection and renewal for you and everyone you love.

Our September meeting covered personal and synagogue safety and awareness. In October we turn to learning about the challenges of homelessness for women in Pensacola. Our speaker, Serene Kieck has worked in the field for years and will bring us insights about the special challenges faced by homeless women. Please come and bring an item valuable to a homeless woman. Check with the luncheon promo for suggestions.

As mentioned, we are doing something very different for Break the Fast this year. We have hired a caterer who is working with talented gourmet coordinator Sydney McAbee. Sponsorships and donations of any amount are cordially welcome. Feel free to devote your time to spiritual contemplation and leave the baking to caterer Ed Smith.

Cindy Pinhas (310) 944-4554 is reaching out to the entire congregation for dessert Oneg sponsorships. Please take your turn in providing Shabbat hospitality to everyone. Kym Lewis encourages everyone to contact her at 850 261-9328 or julmslkym@aol.com, to sign up for providing food for Ronald McDonald House once a month as we have been doing for over 20 years.

Please save these dates:

November 7 - FUN raiser Bunco event at 6 PM at Temple
November 12 – Matzo Ball Diaries play at Temple Beth El by a traveling Jewish women’s troupe in partnership with Federation and B’nai Israel’s Kosher Kitchen (more info will follow)

As we hear the shofar we are connected to other generations – past, present and future. Let the sound waken us from slumber as we again turn toward G-d and begin again, renewed.

Pat

Meet Sarah Zimmerman

Sarah is now an 8th grader at Sims Middle School in Pace, Florida. She is the youngest child of Jay and Jennifer Zimmerman, whose two older sons, Jonathan and Benjamin, also had their b'nai mitzvah at Temple Beth El. Not only is she a member of Sims Middle School Chorus but she holds a second-degree junior black belt in karate. Her Torah portion is Parshat Bereshit (in the beginning). Sarah firmly believes that we must all take care of planet Earth, especially our oceans which are choking from our plastic waste. For her project, she chose to support 4 Ocean, a global movement actively removing trash from the ocean and coastlines while inspiring individuals to work together for a cleaner ocean, one pound at a time.

Keeping Faith - Religion and the Transgender Community

When: Tuesday, October 16, 2019 @ 6:30PM

Where: Opera Center, 75 S Tarragona Street

Leading up to the Pensacola Opera's Presentation of "As One," join us for a special town hall discussion focused on how people of faith may embrace and support members of the transgender community, their friends, and their families. This discussion will feature Rabbi Joel Fleekop (Temple Beth El), Reverend Lisa Kelson (Holy Cross Metropolitan Community Church), Kai Greer (Baptist Health Care Chaplain Intern), and Andy Stubblefield (Baptist Health Care Resident Chaplain), along with members of our local transgender community.

This is a free discussion, open to people of all ages and backgrounds.

Welcome to the newest members of the Temple Beth El family
 Simon and Rachel Zeichner and son, Ari

Free childcare is available during all Adult High Holy Day and Shabbat Services. Please RSVP to Kathy at 850-438-3321 or kathy@templebethelofpensacola.org
