TEMPLE BETH EL

Share our past  Shape our future

October 2020

Tishrei - Chesvan 5781

Volunteers Needed

Date: Sunday, October 4, 2020
Time: 9:00 AM to 11:59 AM

As a result of Hurricane Sally, our historic cemetery suffered catastrophic damage. Many large trees were toppled and a number of gravesites were compromised.

A tree service will complete work on cutting down and removing damaged trees. However, left behind will be massive amounts of branches and leaves.

If we have ever needed volunteers to help with cemetery cleanup, this is the time. Terry Gross will be coordinating cleanup efforts and we really need your help.

Please show up with work gloves, masks and garden tools if you have them (we will provide some). We will maintain safe distancing from each other. If members of families come, they can work together.

This is a great opportunity for some human interaction while doing a true mitzvah. For additional information contact Ray Engel at 850-516-3495 or Terry Gross at 850-449-1762.

Shabbat Sukkot and Simchat Torah Under the Stars

Friday, October 9, 6:00 pm

"This year, there may be no better way to mark Sukkot — the festival of ingathering — than gathering *TOGETHER for a special outdoor service." The service will be held in the Temple Beth El parking lot. Please bring a folding or beach chair to sit upon. Attendees are asked to wear masks and practice social distancing. Unable to join us in person — the service will be available via Zoom and Facebook Live.

Torah Study Kickoff

October 17, 9:30 am.

Join us as we begin our exploration of the Book of Kings. Filled with rich narratives and accessible stories, the Books of I and II Kings recalls the history of the Davidic line and the fate of the Northern and Southern Kingdoms. Learners of all levels and experience are welcome. For more information contact Rabbi Joel rabbi@templebethelofpensacola.org.

Sisterhood Message

I sit here in front of my laptop after making the first of many calls to Sisterhood members to see who needs help after Hurricane Sally. I heard about the new dock and its pilings being blown out to sea, the balconies being blown off a neighbor's 9th floor condo, the bricks blown off the sides of buildings and the beautiful trees that have crashed around us. Our Temple Beth El cemetery took a big hit with scattered fallen, broken trees.

I'm only through the "H's" of the 2019/2020 Sisterhood Directory but I'm relieved to learn that none of our members were physically injured as a result of the hurricane.

Some of our Sisterhood members are in Massachusetts, Virginia and Louisiana. Some were visiting family for fun. Others were helping family members through health crises or career pivots. One person here in Pensacola told me that she returned from a 5 day stay in the hospital because of an irregular heartbeat. And another Sisterhood member told me about a fellow Sisterhood member who was helping her clean up debris on her property.

And that's where your new Sisterhood Board finds itself, supporting our sisters and our members, looking for connections. In the midst of work from home, play from home, alone at home, we are committed to reaching out and being there for our Sisterhood members.

It's with this spirit of love, purpose, support and connection that I want to introduce you all to your new Sisterhood Board. Please welcome Hynda Rome, Liz Broder, Missy Hecht, Cindy Pinhas, Debbi Schlesinger, Ellen Deaver, Elaine Storms, Cookie Kichler and Sheryl Lowenthal Crown. I can't wait to share some of our ideas for the coming year.

The congregation extends its condolences to Joyce Dannheisser and the entire Dannheisser family on the passing of our life-long Temple member, Bert Dannheisser. Bert leaves a rich legacy of service to Pensacola and Temple Beth El and took great joy in seeing his grandchildren and great grandchildren become part of our Temple family. Private funeral services were held at the Temple Beth El Cemetery on Tuesday, September 8.

Zichrono L'vracha
May Bert's memory be a source of comfort and blessing to his family and friends.

~~~~~

The congregation extends its condolences to Lynn and Rich Cacace on the passing of Lynn's father, Bill Hague. May Bill's memory be a source of comfort and blessing.
