Share our past Shape our future

April 2022

Adar II - Nissan 5782

President's Message

Spring is in the air at Temple Beth El. That means we had our Purim Carnival which was a great success and soon it will be time for our celebration of Pesach. After a wonderful year of fun and education, the conclusion of our School for Jewish Living is nearing. The school is vibrant and continues to carry on our tradition of Jewish education.

The facility itself has landscaping that will be lovely come spring and our building is as beautiful and functional as when it was remodeled. I have had the honor of taking several people on tours of the Temple and they are often in awe of the sanctuary and the art that adorns it.

We are planning inspiring events over the next few months. Following the suggestions that were received at the Rabbi's Roundtable, we will have more in person activities such as guest speakers that help us explore other religions, exploration of current day events with an emphasis on practical applications of Jewish law, fund raisers like our successful poker tournament, perhaps a dance (read that as sock hop) with a silent auction. We may be able to put on a short version of our annual show. How about a mini-Shabbaton? With all the chefs in the congregation we could have a cook off with trophies for the best dishes. This is a great spring to get involved. Call me if you have ideas or would like to participate in organizing events.

We are looking to have more musical Shabbat services as well, Opera and Jazz Shabbats are wonderful and have become new traditions for our worship. When you attend services you can be spiritually fulfilled, hear a thought provoking sermon, mingle with fellow congregants and have an enjoyable evening filled with music followed by good food and good conversation.

Our Covid Task Force continues to monitor local conditions to make our congregation safe and comfortable. There will still be a sign in sheet for ease of contacting attendees if necessary, but as you are aware from the recent email blast, masks are voluntary and every other row seating is no longer necessary (we are watching for new developments). The Temple won't be supplying masks so please bring a mask if you would like to wear one.

Yes, spring and summer will be fun for all of us at Temple Beth El.

Steve Eilen M.D.
President

Sisterhood

Sisters:

Passover is upon us and "I" have been so busy doing everything by "myself". It's so hard being me.

For example, here's my schedule last Tuesday:

11am: Never mind that it's sooo early. As I sipped my Diet Coke, I listened as Ellen Deaver clarified the menu she planned for the Temple-wide Seder. She's added extra sauce for two of the three entrees: chicken and fish, to keep them extra moist and flavorful.

I think Hynda Rome or Elaine Storms asked her what the "Market Fresh" vegetable side dish would be. Ellen said, "How do I know what the best looking vegetables are going to be that day? We requested asparagus, but if another vegetable is fresher, we'll go with that."

Hynda and Elaine walked from the TBE Conference Room to the kitchen to get supplies to set a table and see how the various dishes, center Seder Plate for each table, serving dishes for entrees & sides would look. They did a walk through of how the matzo ball soup will be served so that every person's soup is piping hot. They are so picky, detail oriented and process perfectionists.

Because you're wondering, it was my contribution to splash fresh herbs over the soup Salt Bae-style.

We left TBE around 2:30ish. It is so exhausting watching Ellen, Elaine & Hynda but they planned a pretty good Seder!

Reservations required.

Torah on Tap

Join us at Perfect Plain Brewery for an adult beverage, lively conversation, and Jewish learning. This month's topic will be "Is There Really Wisdom and Wickedness or Just Cultural Norms -- The Haggadah's Four Sons through History." Schmoozing starts at 5:00, learning at 5:30. For more information contact Rabbi Joel at 850-438-3321

Hi, my name is Henry Kahn Boyle. I will become a Bar Mitzvah on April 23, 2022. My mother, Frances Jean (Jeanne) Boyle, and my sibling, Benjamin are all looking forward to it very much.

Currently, I'm a seventh grader at Episcopal Day School.

My favorite subjects are Math and Science. In my spare time, I enjoy playing tennis and spending time at the beach. My future includes my love for aviation and I will be attending the Flight Academy at NAS this summer.

For my tzedakah project, I am volunteering with my mother for youth triathlon and duathlon sporting events in our community.

It has been a lot of hard work and time preparing with Rabbi Joel Fleekop in studying Hebrew to finally get to my Bar Mitzvah. I want to thank everyone including my mother, grandmother, and everyone else who supported me on this journey. I am thankful to everyone for being generous with their time and being patient with my progress. I'm excited to be a Bar Mitzvah and I hope you all will join me on this important day.

SOCIAL JUSTICE TEAM REQUESTS VOLUNTEERS

The Social Justice Team recently firmed up some of our plans for our upcoming projects. We are excited and hope you will volunteer to help. There is something for everyone, see where you would like to help.

Our first upcoming project is April 10, 1pm, Sunday in Milton. We are "Springing into Action for Linda!" Linda Armacost is a long-standing member of our Temple. She has been involved until recently in many capacities to help the Temple. Linda is in need of having her yard cleaned and tidied up. Please bring gloves, rakes, shovels and/or trimmers. Pressure washers are in need if you can bring one. Closed toe shoes are recommended.

Our second project is volunteering at Manna Food Bank. This involves helping to sort the food items that are donated. This takes place May 17th-9-12noon. Volunteers 18 and older are welcome. 10 volunteers are needed to help accomplish this task. Closed toe shoes are also required. This will take place at their main campus at 3030 North E St., Pensacola. I will be heading up this project.

Finally, our 3rd project is helping Habitat for Humanity. This takes place during the week of May 17th. There will not be a specific day for TBE but we will join other volunteers to help throughout the week. Details to follow as the times draw near for each event, so check the bulletin and weekly Temple updates and directions.

If you would like to help our committee but cannot do so physically donations are graciously accepted. Checks may be sent to the Temple. Mark your memo line: Social Justice Committee. If you are interested in our committee please join us at our next meeting, April 6th at 9am in the Temple library.
