Temple Goes to Israel 2023
Temple Beth El is going to Israel
March 15-26, 2023!

The trip includes all the "must see sites" as well as a few off the beaten path experiences. The trip will be filled with exploration and learning, as well as fun, great food, and friendship. For more information, including proposed itinerary and details on registration please contact Rabbi Joel at rabi@templebethelofpensacola.org.

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service
Sunday, November 20, 5:00 pm,
Basilica of St. Michael the Archangel
21 N. Palafox St.

Join with friends from Pensacola's Historic Downtown Congregations for our annual Interfaith Thanksgiving. This year's service will be hosted by Basilica of St. Michael the Archangel. Rabbi Joel Fleekop will share the homily. The service begins at 5pm and is followed by a dessert reception.

Shabbat Worship, Dinner and Guest Lecture: "All in the Family: Pensacola's Early Jewish Community" with Dr. Norm Haines, Guest Speaker
Friday, November 18, 6:00 p.m.

Please join us on Friday, November 18 for a very special Shabbat as Temple Beth El welcomes Dr. Norm Haines, historian for the Pensacola Heritage Foundation. The evening will begin at 6:00 p.m. with Shabbat worship, followed by a light dinner and Dr. Haines' lecture on the origins of the Pensacola Jewish community. Thank you to the Rich and Greenhut families for sponsoring the dinner.

Dr. Haines is a retired gastroenterologist with a lifelong interest in history and the Civil War. In 1991 he opened the Civil War Soldiers Museum in downtown Pensacola. Following the museum's destruction by Hurricane Ivan in 2004, Dr. Haines has devoted his scholarship to Pensacola's rich and diverse history. The author of six books, Dr. Haines lectures regularly for the Pensacola Heritage Foundation.

Mazel Tov to Lewis Bear, Jr. on being honored with the 2022 Life Service Award from the National Beer Wholesalers Association.

Sisterhood

Shalom, Y'all. Your Sisterhood Gals have some big things coming up, and not just for sisters!

On Wednesday, November 16, at 12:00, we are having a special paid up membership luncheon. Our speaker is none other than Pensacola's Mayor-Elect, D.C. Reeves! A lovely luncheon, an interesting and timely speaker, and don't worry – if your significant other, friend, or non-paying member would like to join us, they can for the reasonable price of $15.00. And if you haven't paid your dues yet, just do it that day and your entrance is free.

EXTRA FUN NEWS FOR DECEMBER: AN OLD FASHIONED SOCK HOP! Yes, on Saturday night, December 11, pull on your poodle skirt, grab your jeans and white tee shirt, slick back your hair, and come have a blast from the past. We have funny and fun DJ volunteers, a cash bar, old fashioned eats (think burgers, fries, grilled cheese, milkshakes, twinkies...), a twist contest, line dances, and all for just $18 per person. And don't forget to bid on the fun experiences offered in our silent auction...like home delivered meals, a sunset cruise, and even an original song for a special occasion (guess who is donating that one??). If you want a really fun evening out, you'll find it "At the Hop"! Only two months until we start rehearsing for our comedy night, so start doing your "mi mi mi's" in front of the mirror!

Life is a Cabaret!

THANKS TO MANNA VOLUNTEERS

Temple Beth El Social Justice Committee had 17 volunteers on Monday, October 24 at Manna Food Pantry. They were Myrna Lane, Elaine Storms, John Macias, Lieba Macias, Ethan Friedland, Sharon Marcus, Joseph Offord, Steve Rome, Rabbi Joel, Robin Mertins, Liz Broder, Chuck Kahn, Janet Kahn, Bruce Pelton, MaryJo Pelton, Paula Vienneau, and Bill Zimmern. We did a lot of work to help feed the hungry in the Pensacola area. We also had fun. Thanks to all who participated!

Our next chance to help with this wonderful organization is Monday, Dec. 5 from 9-12. Please join us to help our neighbors who have food insecurity, especially during the holidays.

Contact Deborah Buchalter at 850-525-6657 or Bill Zimmern at 850-449-7557 for more information.
